INVEST IN LEISURE

WHAT DIVIDEND in rest, enjoyment and cultivation of the finer possibilities of life are you receiving on the time- and labor-saving discoveries and inventions that chiefly distinguish this era of civilization over all those which have preceded it?

YOU NEED NOT keep house or run the ranch or shop as laboriously and wastefully as these things had to be done even ten years ago, unless you prefer to do so.

THE BETTER WAY is the ELECTRICAL WAY. Apply it to your daily routine and get your personal share of the emancipation from danger, dirt, discomfort and drudgery that the modern gen. King Kilowatt—at your service on pushing the button—has brought.

TALK IT OVER with our local representative, or your dealer in electrical appliances. The electrical way of doing things is far cheaper than most people assume, and immeasurably more convenient and satisfactory than the methods it supersedes.

AMUSEMENTS

UNUSUAL PROGRAM AT THE BUTLER TODAY

An unusually strong program is offered at the Butler today as Round Three of "The Leather Pushers" and Alice Calhoun, in "The Angel of Crooked Street," will be the attractions. In "The Leather Pushers" Reginald Denny plays Kane Halliday, famous hero of a famous series of stories, and Denny is Kane Halliday, alias "Kid" Roberts, heavyweight boxer, society man and son of his illustrious father. The most delightful wedding together of the ring and the social whirl ever filmed, in the humorous and delightful style of H. C. Witwer. And in "The Angel of Crooked Street" Alice Calhoun plays the role of a young girl who has been unjustly imprisoned, and who seeks revenge. She learns, however, that vengeance is not hers to take, and after several complications into which is woven a pleasing love story, the girl emerges a bigger and better woman because of her adventures. It is a story that appeals to the masses because it is intensely human and presents Miss Calhoun in a role to which she is exceptionally well fitted.

Tomorrow: A Saturday Evening Post story by Sinclair Lewis, "Free Air," and "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe," the story the whole world knows.

The Bonanza job printing department is the most complete in the state. No job too intricate for our experts.
